Why SmartStart:

Founded in 2007, SmartStart has the experience, resources and expertise to provide small group Mathematics and ELA tutoring services to students in grades K-12. Dr. Isaak Aronson, the CEO and Founder of SmartStart, was an early adopter of HDT and learned its tenets from its founder at Johns Hopkins University. SmartStart has successfully employed such tutoring programs across the nation to help students achieve maximum learning gains.

SmartStart strives to provide unparalleled customer service. We guarantee that we will thoughtfully and diligently respond to all issues within 24 hours, and usually quicker than that. The schools and districts with whom we work have a true partner who is accountable to the fidelity of the agreements into which we enter.
